UM'S ANNUAL MIX 'N MINGLE BRINGS 1980s BACK TO CAMPUS

MISSOULA--

On Tuesday, Sept. 4, University of Montana students, employees and community members can kick off the school year with food, games and music with a 1980s flavor at UM's 10th annual Moonlight Mix 'n Mingle.

Events will be held at UM's Maureen and Mike Mansfield Mall beginning with dinner from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Featured food items will be "Pac-Man Popcorn Chicken" and "Footloose Mini Cheeseburgers." Cost for the dinner is $5.95 for adults, $3.95 for children. UM students can use prepaid meal plans. All other evening events are free.

This year's Moonlight Mix 'n Mingle promises fun games and great music until midnight. Seattle's highly acclaimed Cool-Ade will perform dance music from the 1980s -- everything from Madonna to Prince to Run-DMC. Disc jockeys will spin '80s tunes. Karaoke fans can perform to win prizes. Back this year by popular demand is the mechanical Robo Surfer, and Bungee Runs will provide fun for all ages.

If the weather doesn't cooperate, organizers have arranged alternative locations in the University Center -- dinner at the UC Food Court, music and games in the UC Ballroom.

For those who want to get into that '80s frame of mind before the Moonlight Mix 'n Mingle, a series of free 1980s movies will be shown Aug. 31 through Sept. 3 at 8 p.m. in the University Center Theater.

For more information call Lisa Hunt at (406) 243-6189.
